

Get Into Excel-ling itself, exclusive 25% off-offer....

SWA this month are offering 25% off the price of our Get Into Excel course which takes place on the 17th June, which covers all the skills you will need to use Excel successfully. The course is run by Ben Woodthorpe one of our most experienced partners. Every candidate has access to a laptop and with Ben's expert tuition and guidance delegates quickly acquire new skills and refresh those which may have faded over time.

Get IT Excel delegates with their certificates having successfully learnt new practical skills using Excel software.

“Ben’s focus is on practical skills, means that every delegate comes out more focused and positive about how Excel can help them in their everyday work”
says Elaine McLaughlin Get Into Programmes Manager

To take advantage of our 25% offer be amongst the first 9 people to contact Elaine on elaine@stevewalkerassociates.com or call her on 0845 459 0136. All you need to do is ensure that the delegate is available on the 17th June and is at Cliffe House for 9.30am, the course runs through to approximately 4.30pm and is now at a cost of only £150 +vat (£200 +vat before reduction).
