SWA

As one of the fastest growing management and training consultancies in the East Midlands, it is our goal to help businesses grown and develop through be-spoke training, coaching and mentoring programmes.

All of our trainers and consultants are highly experienced and are able to bring relevant experiences that they have learnt from. Fully interactive sessions create not only learning relationships with the trainer but also with the other delegates on the day.

On completion of the course a full report providing feedback will be generated and delivered to you by our open course manager. This will show the skills that have been taken on board for implementation within the business and will have the ability to be assessed against.

Training Environment

Situated only 10 minutes from J22 of the M1, our dedicated training facilities are a perfect environment for training and learning, a chance for individuals to concentrate on their development and better themselves in business.

A full buffet lunch is provided that caters for a variety of different dietary needs.
